A vulgar business man named Harry, comes to Washington DC to make crooked deals with government officials. He brings his charming, but uneducated ex-chorus girlfriend, Billie, along for the trip. Harry is worried that her lack of social graces and seemingly feeble brain won't impress the bigwigs he's trying to swindle. So he hires an idealistic reporter (who is investigating political corruption and is interested in Brock's activities) to educate Billie, thereby keeping both of them out of his hair for a while. But Billie takes a liking to the reporter, who treats her with kindness and respect, and she proves to be a quick study-learning about history, politics...and what Harry is really all about. This famous comedy enjoyed one of the longest runs in Broadway history and gave Judy Holliday the role that made her a star!

Meal selection made at the restaurant.
